What distinctive insights are gained through a theoretically informed study of African texts? Emphasizing comparison between different countries and regions within sub-Saharan Africa, with a special focus on South Africa and Rwanda, this advanced seminar in literature and theory concentrates on issues of language and translation, as well as on the politics of vernacular expression, as they relate to questions of colonialism, war, genocide, sexual violence, exile, decolonization, national reconciliation, human rights, and the role of testimonial discourse. Authors likely to include Krog, Coetzee, Louw, Memela, Jordan, Mqhayi, Nyembezi, Ngugi, Kagame, Chretien, Prunier, Rurangwa, Diop, Derrida, African Rights, among others.
